

January 2024

From the Dean

Greetings! Happy New Year!

Best wishes for this new year of 2024 to each of you and yours!

Reminders:

- Epiphany Party is at Bill Dolen's House on January 5, 2024, 1016 Millledge Road, Augusta, GA. Potluck & a beverage to share if you prefer wine, etc. It begins at 6:30 pm.
- February - Saturday, February 17th at 3 pm our chapter hosts the Southeast Competition Winner from our convention this year, Abigail Crafton in Concert at St John United Methodist Church, 736 Greene Street. Reception to follow.

Below you'll find information to share with your church, with piano and music students, and all those who teach music about the February Concert. While we do hope some young people will attend and become interested in the organ, this is also about sharing our craft, supporting younger musicians and providing avenues through which to open the ears and minds of all who attend to the beauty and versatility of the organ and its place in our arts and our culture. This is one of the many ways we can promote our mission in the AGO. I hope you find opportunities to share this with others, for this is another chance to have an impact on the world around us. My hope is that the message and mission of the AGO will shine through our invitations to others. Below is a notice you can place in your church newsletters or social media if appropriate, to promote this event. I'm working on a graphic for our AGO facebook page - once you see it there, feel free to copy and share. I'm also working on a flier and will ask Mark to send that as soon as it's ready.

Praying for a wonderful new year for each of you!

Kathleen

AGO/ Quincy Competition Winner in Concert

Abigail Crafton

The American Guild of Organists, Augusta Chapter (AGO Augusta) presents Ms. Abigail Crafton in concert at St. John United Methodist Church, 736 Greene Street, Augusta, Ga on Saturday, February 17th at 3 pm, with a reception to follow. Admission is free. Ms. Crafton is the winner of the Southeast AGO/Quimby Regional Competition for Organists in June, 2023 held in Augusta. She is a high school junior and has studied piano since the age of three, singing since the age of four, and began studying the trumpet in elementary school. At the age of ten she began the organ, which she requested when she was three. Abigail has played principal trumpet in the Armstrong Youth Orchestra, and has been first chair Georgia All-State in 2021, 2022, and 2023. Abigail is the Organ Scholar at the Cathedral Basilica of St. John the Baptist in Savannah, where she also sings soprano. Abigail studies organ with Dr. Paul Thornock, and was one of the top three competitors in the Baylor University High School Organ Competition this past November. Please join us on the 17th of February with this amazing musician as she inspires our hearts and shares her love of music on the Dobson Organ, Opus 78 at St. John Methodist, Augusta. For more information about the instrument, go to: <https://www.stjohnaugusta.org/the-organ/> or http://www.dobsonorgan.com/html/instruments/op78_augusta.html
