

November 2023

From the Dean

Guild Members and Friends,

We had a wonderful September and October with organ and choral music. Look for a thank you note from the family of Dale Hesse in this newsletter for our September program – the Hymn Festival with David Cherwien. Thanks to everyone who made that happen! As I write this, we are one day away from our October meeting at Grace United Methodist Church in North Augusta. Thank you to Christopher Leysath for providing the program, dinner, and fellowship time.

In November, we gather at Good Shepherd Episcopal Church in Augusta, with Jim Nord as our host. Dr. Don Saliers will be our guest speaker. Theologian in Residence at the Candler School of Theology at Emory in Atlanta, GA, I'm sure he will bring an interesting presentation for us. I hope you can make that meeting. More information about Dr. Saliers is here: <https://candler.emory.edu/faculty-profiles/don-e-saliers/>

Soli Deo Gloria!

Kathleen

Please let us know if you're planning to attend dinner before the Monday, November 13th meeting at Church of the Good Shepherd. Special Thanks to Jim Nord for preparing our meal that evening. RSVP by Saturday, November 11th to the newsletter editor: markdickens81@icloud.com. The meal begins at 7pm and cost is $15.

Don Saliers shares Spiritual/ Musical insights from a former AGO Chaplain November 13th at Church of the Good Shepherd

Save the date for November 13th at 7pm when the Augusta AGO chapter hosts an evening with Don Saliers, a theologian and former distinguished professor of Theology and Worship at Candler School of Theology. While at Emory, Don directed the Master of Sacred Music Program and served as Organist & Choirmaster at Cannon Chapel for 35 years. Additionally, Don has taught at Yale Divinity School and authored 15 books on Theology and Worship. Invite your clergy and friends for this engaging evening of continuing education.

7pm Dinner, 8pm Presentation

Dear Augusta Chapter,

This thank you is being extended to everyone in the AGO, Augusta Chapter who helped in any way with the Cherwien Hymn Festival on September 30 and the reception afterward. First of all, thank you to all the AGO members who spread the word in their churches throughout the CSRA. Thank you to those directors and churches whose choir members participated in the mass choir - Covenant Presbyterian, St. John Methodist, First Presbyterian, St. Paul's Episcopal, St. Paul's Lutheran and Bethlehem Lutheran, Aiken. (If there were others we were not aware of, thank you to them also) Everyone we met who commented about the wonderful choir were amazed that their beautiful voices had only practiced together once just a few hours before the festival!

A special thank you to the readers whose thoughtful interpretations added meaning to the quotes and scripture passages - Kathleen Cartledge, David Salter, Mark Dickens, and Jamie Garvey. A special thank you to Keith Shafer for his coordination with St. Paul's and the attention to all the details that were involved with the setup of the organ and the sanctuary, the printing of the programs, and picking up the food for the lovely reception in the River Room. Lastly, a very special thank you to Kathleen Cartledge who helped us coordinate for many months with David Cherwien, and helped to create the program.

The hymn festival could not have happened without everyone working together! Dale was blessed to have served so many churches in the CSRA and was always aiming to energize worshippers through music to glorify God. David Cherwien certainly energized us at the hymn festival with his inspired musical interpretations and superb hymn leading. We received a thank you note from a friend who said, "I had always thought hymns were boring until I heard Cherwien at an ALCM event at Emory. Never the same after that, and always great to refresh that awakening."

Thank you again for all of your support! Play on! Sing on! Soli Deo Gloria!

Blessings,

Janet Hesse and family

Grace United Methodist Church, North Augusta

The Greater Columbia Chapter of the American Guild of Organists
is hosting

Pedals, Pipes, & Pizza

Come and meet the King of Instruments, the pipe organ!

WHEN? Saturday, November 18, 2023, 10:00 a.m. to Noon
A free pizza lunch will follow.

WHERE? Shandon United Methodist Church
3407 Devine St., Columbia SC 29201

WHO IS INVITED? Anyone, young or old, who wants to learn about pipe organs.

This will be a brief and entertaining introduction to the pipe organ for anyone ages 8 and up, followed by a chance to build a small organ and play the big one. It's an opportunity for anyone to learn how the pipe organ works! There is no charge for this educational program.

The co-leaders will be Joseph Franklin, who will have played the previous evening's recital, David Lowry, Debbie Bauer, and Stephen Spake. The instruments for the event are Shandon Methodist's large Moller pipe organ and a wonderful "let's put it together" pipe organ. We hope you can join us for a fun morning of learning!

Pre-registration is not required for this event.
Please spread the word! We especially encourage piano teachers and children's choir directors to bring their students.

Please join us the previous evening for another Young Organist Weekend event:
Friday, November 17, 7:00 p.m. - Recital by Joseph Franklin, featured performer of our 2023 Young Organist Competition. This free recital is at Shandon United Methodist Church.

7th - John Crosby

17th - Walter Harwood

19th - Lyn Patterson

24th - Kathleen Cartledge

Best Wishes to Dr. Bill Bates, Retired Professor of organ at the University of South Carolina in Columbia who will be relocating to Texas this Month. An appreciation-filled, farewell reception for Dr. Bates will take place on Tuesday, November 14th in Columbia.
